CCP TRAINS POLITICAL AND LABOR CADRES

HA-MI HOLDS CADRE CONFERENCE -- Urumchi Sinkiang Jih-pao, 19 Apr 50

Ha-mi -- To improve cadre thinking and working habits, more than 50 delegates from the Ha-mi City Branch, CCP; Ha-mi Hsien Branch, CCP; Ha-mi Defense Headquarters, and Ha-mi Defense Battalion, held a cadres' conference on 9 April 1950 in Ha-mi, Sinkiang.

Chao Hua-sheng (1) /numbers refer to appended characters/, chief of the propaganda department, Ha-mi City Branch, CCP, stressed the need of eliminating the shortcomings of cadres to promote better relations between the cadres and the masses.

Other prominent figures who attended the conference included: Wei Hao (2), secretary, Ha-mi Hsien Branch, CCP; Kuo Yung-hai (3), chief, Business Office, Ha-mi Defense Headquarters; Li Te-ming (4), member, Training Staff, Ha-mi Defense Battalion; and Chang Shu-sheng (5), chief of the Ha-mi Reception Center which confines guerrillas, spies, opium addicts, gamblers, thieves, etc.

HSU-CH'ANG TRAINS 10,828 CADRES -- Hankow Chang-chiang Jih-pao, 26 May 50

Hsu-ch'ang -- In the past year, 10,828 cadres were trained in Hsu-ch'ang Special Ch'u, Honan Province. Of these, 6,000 were trained to work in ch'u or higher echelons, and 1,470 were trained to work in hsiang governments. Hsuch'ang Special Ch'u has 13 hsiens, 2 cities, 95 ch'us, and 1,785 hsiangs. The most important work of the cadres is to sponsor various people's delegates conferences or meetings.

LABOR CADRE SCHOOL TO START NEW TERM -- Peiping Jen-min Jih-pao, 31 May 50

Tientsin -- On 18 May 1950, more than 700 student representatives from large factories and labor unions completed the 6-month course at the All-China Federation of Labor (ACFL) Cadres School in Tientsin. The school is now recluiting cadres from middle and higher level labor unions for the second term classes which will begin about 1 July 1950.

The first-term classes started in November 1949. Classes are divided between the theory and the activities departments. The theory department includes lectures by Ai Ssu-ch'i on Historical Materialism and the Outline History of the Development of Society. The activities department includes courses on labor movements of the world, the labor movement in USSR, which is given by three Soviet specialists on the subject, and the labor movements in China. The latter course is given by various departmental officials of the ACFL.

During the past 6 months, the students have been indoctrinated in Marxism, Leninism, and Maoism. Their class consciousness has been raised; a spirit of internationalism has been created; and the responsibility of labor union activities in China today has been clarified. The students were also made to recognize that their duty is a glorious one and that their ultimate aim is to increase production.

Before graduation, Li Li-san, president of the school, met the assembled students to answer various questions in regard to labor movements in general. He urged them to practice, in their future activities, the theories learned at
